MIDLAND - Gather round the hearth to feel the warmth of memories shared. Once a month, a group of longtime residents join to share their recollections at the Whitman Room of the Herbert D. Doan Midland County History Center, 3417 W. Main St., Midland. Floyd Andrick will moderate the topic "Home Remedies," sharing a few home remedies, one of which saved his life when he was a baby. The audience will be encouraged to share home remedies that were used in their own homes, as well as those used by parents and grandparents. The Fireside Chat is from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. Thursday, September 10. Admission to the presentation is FREE. The public is invited to listen, learn and join in with questions or memories of their own. This wonderful series of talks also serves to preserve our past by recording sessions for the oral history collection. For further information, contact Floyd Andrick at (989) 837-0870.

The Midland County Historical Society maintains Heritage Park, which includes the Herbert D. Doan Midland County History Center, 1874 Bradley Home Museum and Carriage House and the Herbert H. Dow Historical Museum. The Historical Society was founded in 1952 and is dedicated to fostering the understanding, appreciation and preservation of Midland County's heritage.
