MIDLAND – A lifetime of living deserves to be recorded and preserved. Each of us has important stories to share, yet often the hardest part of writing them is getting started! To make the process of recording your life stories easier, the Midland County Historical Society is pleased to offer a three-day class "Write Your Life!" on November 4, 5 and 6, 10 am to 2 pm each day. Join local resident and retired professor Carol Sanford in The Whitman Room of the Herbert D. Doan Midland County History Center, 3417 W. Main St., Midland, as she offers unique and specialized ways to get your important stories brought to the surface and put to paper accurately for future generations to enjoy. Carol is an enthusiastic instructor; her energy and insights will help you bring your own personal history into a new dimension. Fees for the three-day class are $60 general admission; $50 for MCHS members. Participants are asked to bring a brown-bag lunch each day. For registration information contact the MCFTA Ticket Office at 631-8250, the MCHS at 631-5930, extension 1310, or on the web at www.mcfta.org.

The Midland County Historical Society maintains Heritage Park, which includes the Herbert D. Doan Midland County History Center, 1874 Bradley Home Museum and Carriage House and the Herbert H. Dow Historical Museum. The Historical Society was founded in 1952 and is dedicated to fostering the understanding, appreciation and preservation of Midland County's heritage.
