Midland Symphony Orchestra presents:

What: Midland Symphony League Barnes & Noble Book Fair

When: November 21 & 22

Where: Barnes & Noble Booksellers, Midland Mall

Information: Call Ticket Office at (989) 631-8250 or (800) 523-7649 or www.mcfta.org

Barnes & Nobel at the Midland Mall will hold a book fair in support of the Midland Symphony League on November 21 and 22. When shoppers present a voucher or mention the League, Barnes & Nobel will donate to the League a percentage of the net sale. Vouchers are available at Midland Center for the Arts. For information about the League, a volunteer group with an open membership that supports and promotes community awareness for the Midland Symphony Orchestra and its outreach programs, please contact Alysha Anders at the Symphony office 989-631-5930 ext. 1600.

The Midland Symphony Orchestra (MSO) has provided mid-Michigan with continuous symphonic music since 1936. Along with concerts featuring renowned guest artists, the MSO also provides educational opportunities through its touring ensembles in the schools, Community Orchestra, chamber concerts, Tunes for Tots, prelude lectures, scholarships, music appreciation programs and guest artist master classes and residencies.

Midland Center for the Arts, Inc. is a non-profit, tax-exempt corporation formed under the laws of the State of Michigan incorporating six groups: Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art, MATRIX:MIDLAND, Midland County Historical Society, Midland Symphony Orchestra, Music Society and Theatre Guild. Activities at Midland Center for the Arts are supported in part by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts. For the latest Center news, visit our web site at www.mcfta.org.
