The Theatre Guild of Midland Center for the Arts, 1801 W. St. Andrews Rd., Midland, MI, announces auditions for their upcoming production of Duck Hunter Shoots Angel. Auditions will take place in the Lecture Room of MCFTA on September 14 and 15, starting at 7:30 p.m. Roles are available for 7 men (including 1 African-American), and 2 women. Performance dates are November 6-14, 2009. Directed by Jan Huff. Scripts are available for 7-day loan with $10 refundable deposit. For more information, contact Emily Anderson at (989) 631-5930 x 1270.

Duck Hunter Shoots Angel is the hilarious story by Mitch Albom (Tuesdays with Morrie) of two bumbling brothers who have never shot a duck before but think they shot an angel. A tabloid journalist and his reluctant photographer assigned to cover the story don't believe any of it – until feathers, wings and a tiara are discovered along the way. Throw in a shop girl at the local gas mart, a half-man/half-alligator, and a ghost, and you have a wonderful comedy with a heartfelt message!

Theatre Guild is one of the most successful and exciting community theatre companies in the Midwest. Established in 1929, Midland's oldest and most innovative theatre organization presents plays, children's theatre, and a continuing program of community service, school residencies, theatre classes and workshops.

Midland Center for the Arts, Inc. is a non-profit, tax-exempt corporation formed under the laws of the State of Michigan incorporating six groups: Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art, MATRIX:MIDLAND, Midland County Historical Society, Midland Symphony Orchestra, Music Society and Theatre Guild. Activities at Midland Center for the Arts are supported in part by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.
