Volunteer opportunities abound at Midland Center for the Arts. New and current volunteers, ages 16 and older, will explore exciting opportunities and meet new friends at the FREE event "Taste of Volunteering" on Thursday, September 10. Participants will gather at 5:45 in the Lecture Room of Midland Center for the Arts, 1801 W. St. Andrews Rd., Midland, MI, for an intriguing presentation of upcoming volunteer opportunities for the 2009-2010 season. Immediately following this one-and-only event, join MCFTA for "Make It Dessert!", their season kick-off event, to enjoy delicious sweets and learn more about this season's arts offerings. Reserve your spot for "Taste of Volunteering" by contacting the Ticket Office at 989-631-8250 or visiting www.mcfta.org.

The Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art (ABDM) celebrates discovery, creativity and individual expression through art, science and the interplay between them. Exhibitions in the Museum, classes at the Museum School, multiple outreach programs, a permanent collection and various special events are all components in the ABDM programming.

Midland Center for the Arts, Inc. is a non-profit, tax-exempt corporation formed under the laws of the State of Michigan incorporating six groups: Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art, MATRIX:MIDLAND, Midland County Historical Society, Midland Symphony Orchestra, Music Society and Theatre Guild. Activities at Midland Center for the Arts are supported in part by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.
