For nearly 40 years, Midland Center for the Arts has been a magical place in our community, creating wonder, inspiring learning, taking us to places we've never been. Through its offerings, many have experienced the first stirrings of a lifelong passion for art, music, dance, theater, history or science. The Center means many things to many people, but it communicates in the universal language of the imagination and sets the stage for us to expand our horizons and enhance our lives.
