MIDLAND – The Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art announces that the exhibition WaterWorks: Soak up the Science will be extended through Sunday, May 2.

“Waterworks has been such a success story for the Museum,” says Museum Director Bruce Winslow. “With its strong participation from the community, its rich educational value, its relevancy to the time in which we live and its element of fun, we are proud to announce that WaterWorks has been extended due to popular demand. Come see, play and learn. Kids can teach parents and grandparents about how to be a smart partner with the Earth and how to protect life’s most precious resource: WATER.” The Art of Water exhibition will conclude as scheduled on April 25.

Tickets are $9 adults; $6 children; $3 for Museum members. Ticket price includes admission to all Museum exhibits, including the interactive Hall of Ideas. All can be viewed during Museum hours (through May 2): Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, 10 am to 4 pm, Thursday 10 am to 8 pm, Sundays 1 pm to 5 pm, CLOSED Mondays, Tuesdays and major holidays. For information, call the MCFTA Ticket Office at (989) 631-8250 or (800) 523-7649 or visit www.mcfta.org.

The Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art (ABDM) celebrates discovery, creativity and individual expression through art, science and the interplay between them. Exhibitions in the Museum, classes at the Museum School, multiple outreach programs, a permanent collection and various special events are all components in the ABDM programming.
