MIDLAND - Creativity generated at the Museum School of the Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art is featured during the upcoming Faculty and Student Exhibition at Midland Center for the Arts, 1801 W. St. Andrews Rd., Midland, MI. Recent works of Museum School faculty members demonstrate the skills of the professionals providing year-round instruction at the Museum School. Museum School students will showcase creations developed from concepts and techniques learned during class.

The exhibition runs August 7 through September 19. Tickets are $8 adult and $5 student; FREE to Museum members. Ticket price includes admission to all Museum exhibits, including The Art of the Brick and the interactive Hall of Ideas.

A FREE opening reception will take place on Thursday, August 12, from 7 to 9 pm. The public is welcome and refreshments will be served.

The Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art (ABDM) celebrates discovery, creativity and individual expression through art, science and the interplay between them. Exhibitions in the Museum, classes at the Museum School, multiple outreach programs, a permanent collection and various special events are all components in the ABDM programming.

Midland Center for the Arts, Inc. is a non-profit, tax-exempt corporation formed under the laws of the State of Michigan incorporating six groups: Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art, Center Stage Theatre, MATRIX: MIDLAND, Midland County Historical Society, Midland Symphony Orchestra, and Music Society – Choral.
