MIDLAND – Center Stage Theatre’s “Golden Guild” is looking for a few good men and women to perform at senior citizen facilities in the Midland area. Well received by its audiences, Golden Guild provides valuable entertainment to local seniors by performing “reader’s theatre” using an old-time radio script and a few props.

Performance scripts are available at audition time. Auditions will take place in Rehearsal Room 3 Midland Center for the Arts, 1801 W. St. Andrews Rd., on Sunday, September 11 from 1 pm to 3 pm. No appointments are necessary.

Participants of all ages are encouraged to audition. Performances require no memorization, and costumes and props are used to bring the show to life. Golden Guild performances are scheduled as requested in the afternoons and early evenings. Rehearsal times will be determined by the group as needed. For information please contact Amy Behrens at 989-631-5930 ext 1702.

Center Stage Theatre (formerly Theatre Guild and Music Society) is one of the most successful and exciting community theatre companies in the Midwest. Center Stage Theatre continues to present high quality plays, musical theatre, children’s theatre, and programs of community service, theatre classes and workshops in the Great Lakes Bay Region.

Midland Center for the Arts, Inc. is a non-profit, tax-exempt corporation formed under the laws of the State of Michigan incorporating six groups: Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art, Center Stage Theatre, MATRIX:MIDLAND, Midland County Historical Society, Midland Symphony Orchestra, and Music Society – Choral. Activities at Midland Center for the Arts are supported in part by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.
