MIDLAND – WANTED: budding theatrical set designers ages 13 to adult who are ready to get their design geek on!! In the brand-new class, Set Designer [Your Name Here], instructor Kristen Lences (set designer for Center Stage Theatre's recent productions of Camelot and Peter Pan) creates a collaborative experience in which the students are the creative force behind the scenic concept and design for the August 2011 Teenage Musicals, Inc., production of Seven Brides for Seven Brothers. Fun and intensive, this twice-weekly workshop culminates in a collective final design presentation including research, sketches, storyboards, color palettes and scale models. If you're pursuing a theatre, architecture or design degree, this is a perfect portfolio project. Cost is $125. TMI is offering full scholarships for this class; to apply, contact the Ticket Office at 631-8250. Register by calling the Ticket Office at 989-631-8250, or online at mcfta.org. For more information, contact Kristen Lences at 989-631-5930 x 1601.
