Auditions will take place in the Lecture Room of Midland Center for the Arts, 1801 W. St. Andrews Rd., Midland. Auditionees may attend either date, but must plan to stay for the entire 3-hour audition. Casting is for a mixed cast of eight with opportunities for extras. Casting is flexible. Adult subject matter and language. Performance dates are April 13 - 15, 2012. Directed by Keeley Stanley-Bohn.

Audition packets available at MCFTA front desk three weeks prior to auditions.

The Laramie Project is a breathtaking theatrical collage that demonstrates the depth to which humanity can sink and the heights of compassion of which we are capable through an exploration of the events surrounding the beating and death of gay University of Wyoming student, Matthew Shepard. Written by Moisés Kaufman and members of the Tectonic Theatre Project. Adult subject matter and language.
