MIDLAND - Create, express and experience art and science this fall at Midland Center for the Arts classes. Registration is underway for dozens of classes with something for every age, schedule and interest. For more information or to register, call Midland Center for the Arts Ticket Office at 800-523-7649 or visit www.mcfta.org. Early registration is recommended to ensure a place, and registrants can save up to $10 if they register by September 6. Registration ends September 15.

Midland Center for the Arts offers a wide variety of classes led by qualified instructors. Classes include:

PAINTING FUNDAMENTALS • For ages 8 – 11. Be introduced to the basic techniques of design, composition and color. Individual creativity is emphasized as you learn to paint still lifes, people, and from your imagination.

CLAY ALL THE WAY • For ages 6 – 8. Geared to let the youngest ceramicists explore this great medium as they roll, pinch, coil, throw and manipulate clay in different ways.

SCIENCE EXPLORERS • For ages 6 – 8. Have fun exploring the basic concepts of the sciences such as chemistry, physics, astronomy, geology and biology.

THE ART OF WEAVING • For adults. Beginning through advanced students will hone their skills on the floor loom.

Exclusive 2-day workshop! THE CLAY VESSEL IN ART – October 22 & 23 • For adults. Guy Adamec, a formally trained functional potter, leads participants in an exploration of contemporary attitudes within the context of the traditional vessel format.

Midland Center for the Arts, Inc. is a non-profit, tax-exempt corporation formed under the laws of the State of Michigan incorporating six groups: Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art, Center Stage Theatre, MATRIX:MIDLAND, Midland County Historical Society, Midland Symphony Orchestra, and Music Society – Choral. Activities at Midland Center for the Arts are supported in part by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.
