Midland – Travel back in time to a Victorian evening of softly lit rooms and carols sung by the hearth when Midland County Historical Society presents “Alight at Night: Bradley Home Holiday Tours” on December 16, 6 pm to 8 pm. Located at 3400 Cook Road, Midland, the rooms of the Bradley Home will be decked in their holiday finest, with docents sharing stories from holidays of yesteryear. Hot spiced cider and light refreshments appropriate to the era will be served.

“There will be soft music and demonstrations of holiday traditions enjoyed by families of the Victorian era, and attendees can get their photo taken in a vintage winter sleigh,” says Gary Skory, MCHS Director. “The evening will have a playful feel with crafts, storytelling and family holiday pastimes, as well as photo-ops with Father Christmas. Additionally, local collector Blue Dingman’s Christmas Village will be on exhibit. Because of our seasonal hours, this special evening will be your only chance to enjoy the tradition of visiting the Bradley Home this holiday season.”

Tickets are $8 per adult; $5 for MCHS members and children 14 and under. For more information or to purchase tickets call Ticket Office at (989) 631-8250 or (800) 523-7649 or www.mcfta.org
