MIDLAND – Midland County Historical Society's popular "Fireside Chat" program resumes in March! Gather round the hearth to feel the warmth of memories shared. Once a month, a group of longtime residents joins to share their recollections at the Whitman Room of the Herbert D. Doan Midland County History Center, 3417 W. Main St., Midland. Floyd Andrick will moderate the topic "The Early Days of Midland Hospital." Several early administrators and staff members will join in the discussion. The Fireside Chat is from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. Thursday, March 11. Admission to the presentation is FREE. The public is invited to listen, learn and join in with questions or memories of their own. This wonderful series of talks also serves to preserve our past by recording sessions for the oral history collection. For further information, contact Floyd Andrick at (989) 837-0870.

The Midland County Historical Society maintains Heritage Park, which includes the Herbert D. Doan Midland County History Center, 1874 Bradley Home Museum and Carriage House and the Herbert H. Dow Historical Museum. The Historical Society was founded in 1952 and is dedicated to fostering the understanding, appreciation and preservation of Midland County's heritage.
