MIDLAND - Gather round the hearth to feel the warmth of memories shared. Once a month, a group of longtime residents join to share their recollections in the Atrium of the Herbert D. Doan Midland County History Center, 3417 W. Main St., Midland.

September's topic will be "How We Met." Come share your own stories and memories about encounters that led to lifelong friendship, a business partnership – even ROMANCE! Floyd Andrick will moderate.

Come early and visit VOICES: Extraordinary Women of Midland County, on display through October 29. Two galleries of powerful stories, engaging photographs and videotapes, and interesting personal artifacts of hundreds of Midland women, past and present. Museum admission is $5 adults | $3 ages 4 – 14 | FREE for MCHS members and children 3 and under.

The Fireside Chat is from 2 to 3 pm, Thursday, September 8. Light refreshments will be served following the discussion. Admission to the presentation is FREE. The public is invited to listen, learn and join in with questions or memories of their own. This wonderful series of talks also serves to preserve our past by recording sessions for the oral history collection. For further information, contact Floyd Andrick at (989) 837-0870.
