MIDLAND – Join the Midland County Historical Society for their quarterly Heritage Series Program on March 18 at 7:30 pm in the Whitman Room of the Herbert D. Doan Midland County History Center, 3417 W. Main Street in Midland, MI. MCHS Director Gary Skory will explore the trials and triumphs Midland experienced during the Great Depression, from the business sense of Willard Dow to the tragedy of an attempted robbery that turned fatal. What lessons might we draw from that time to help us through our current "Great Recession"? Admission is $5 for the public; free to MCHS members. Tickets and information are available by calling the Ticket Office at 989-631-8250 or 800-523-7649 or online at www.mcfta.org.

The Midland County Historical Society maintains Heritage Park, which includes the Herbert D. Doan Midland County History Center, 1874 Bradley Home Museum and Carriage House and the Herbert H. Dow Historical Museum. The Historical Society was founded in 1952 and is dedicated to fostering the understanding, appreciation and preservation of Midland County's heritage.
