The Camerata Singers of Midland is a chamber choir that performs music of all styles, from classic to modern. They rehearse on Monday evenings from 7 to 9:30 p.m. The choir is directed by Music Society Choral Programs Director James Hohmeyer and accompanied by Bonnie Sitter. Members are expected to read music and have a background in choral music. The Camerata performs a concert in late June; participates in the Holiday Extravaganza in December, and sings one or two other outreach concerts during the year.

Music Society of the Midland Center for the Arts is a premier, volunteer musical arts organization serving mid-Michigan. It provides volunteers and audiences with exciting, quality musical events, utilizing professionals to educate and develop its talented, community-based participants.

Midland Center for the Arts, Inc. is a non-profit, tax-exempt corporation formed under the laws of the State of Michigan incorporating six groups: Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art, MATRIX:MIDLAND, Midland County Historical Society, Midland Symphony Orchestra, Music Society and Theatre Guild. Activities at Midland Center for the Arts are supported in part by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.
