MIDLAND – The Midland Symphony League is pleased to present a Collegiate Recital as part of its Symphony Showcase Series on Wednesday, December 29, 7 pm at St. John's Episcopal Church, 405 N. Saginaw Road, Midland. Featured are area students who are continuing their instrumental studies at the college level. The community is invited to this FREE event. The Midland Symphony League is a volunteer group with an open membership that supports and promotes community awareness for the Midland Symphony Orchestra and its outreach programs. For information about the League, please contact Kimberly Dimond, 989-631-5930 ext. 1502.

College students home for holidays will share their musical talents with the community. Students featured are: Shannon Bahr, voice (freshman, Indiana University); Alex Carney, violin (junior, University of Michigan); Josiah Kollmeyer, violin (freshman, Hillsdale College); Daniel Rings, voice (freshman, Central Michigan University); J.J. Treadway, piano (freshman, Western Michigan University); and Ian VonWald, violin (freshman, University of Michigan). A post-recital reception will be hosted by Sigma Alpha Iota, an international music fraternity.

The Midland Symphony Orchestra (MSO) has provided mid-Michigan with continuous symphonic music since 1936. Along with concerts featuring renowned guest artists, the MSO also provides educational opportunities through its touring ensembles in the schools, Tunes for Tots, prelude lectures, scholarships, music appreciation programs and guest artist master classes and residencies.
