MIDLAND – Youngsters and their grown-ups can enjoy a morning full of musical fun during Tunes for Tots “Stringing Along” on Wednesday, January 12, at 10 am at Midland Center for the Arts, 1801 W. St. Andrews Rd., Midland. Experience the excitement of the violin when MSO musician Heather DeGroot demonstrates the strength of the Orchestra’s lead instrument. Tunes for Tots provides musical activities and promotes interaction between children. Come as you are – strollers and all! Admission is free and complimentary cookies and juice are provided by the MOMS Club of Midland. Sponsored by Midland Symphony League. Contact Kimberly Dimond at 989-631-5930 x 1502 or dimond@mcfta.org for more information.

The Midland Symphony Orchestra (MSO) has provided mid-Michigan with continuous symphonic music since 1936. Along with concerts featuring renowned guest artists, the MSO also provides educational opportunities through its touring ensembles in the schools, Tunes for Tots, prelude lectures, scholarships, music appreciation programs and guest artist master classes and residencies.

Midland Center for the Arts, Inc. is a non-profit, tax-exempt corporation formed under the laws of the State of Michigan incorporating six groups: Alden B. Dow Museum of Science and Art, Center Stage Theatre, MATRIX:MIDLAND, Midland County Historical Society, Midland Symphony Orchestra, and Music Society – Choral. Activities at Midland Center for the Arts are supported in part by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.
