The Midland Center for the Arts' Auditorium Set Shop will be bustling when Music Society Technical Director Kristen Lences, and Wardrobe Supervisor Laurelei Horton conduct two Peter Pan "Make-A-Lots": January 16 and 23 from 1 pm to 4 pm. "This is a fun way to get involved in a production here at the Center," says Lences. "There's nothing like seeing your work on stage on opening night! And best of all, it's free!" Make-A-Lots are open to the public and focus on prop finishing, painting, and costuming. Ages 7 and up are welcome, as well as all experience levels; appropriate training will be provided. No RSVP is necessary. Clothing appropriate for painting is recommended and closed-toes shoes are required.

Performance dates for "Peter Pan" are March 20-21, and March 25-27. Don't miss a beat of this fun-filled musical adventure complete with lost boys, high-stepping pirates, the delightfully dangerous Captain Hook and the perennially charming boy who won't grow up: Peter Pan! It's a classic tale of youth, joy and freedom, all captured in this Tony Award-winning musical. The whole family will want to join Wendy, Michael and John on a magical journey to Neverland.
